PRESENTATION OF THE ORGANIZATIONS INVOLVED:

Pro Dezvoltare DACIA Association (APDD), Romania:

Since its beginnings, the organization has set itself the task of participating in the development of the community in all its aspects by bringing to its service the vast experience of the staff involved. Thus it has developed various projects and partnerships with other organizations, with public institutions, with schools, in support of the community especially in support of vulnerable people at risk of marginalization and social exclusion.

APDD principles: initiative, involvement and cooperation, volunteering, mutual respect and support, transparency, equity, competition, responsibility, principledness, equality and legality.

Aux couleurs du DEBA, France:

has experience in international mobility, one of its main objectives being to implement exchanges and trainings at European level. It was selected by the France National Agency to be the "Erasmus Plus Developer Program". In the community where they work, most people are of immigrant origin, and the high unemployment rate particularly affects young people.

The target group of the organization is the same as in project: young people and adults experiencing social inclusion issues (eg unemployed, NEETS, immigrants, Roma, etc.).

YouNet, Italy: promotes, designs and realizes: mobility for educational purposes and active citizen activities in Europe; long-term: cultural, social exchanges, training focused on social workers and citizens, school and professional orientation; Collaborates with: public institutions - especially at local and regional level; schools, universities, ex-law school, vocational education institutions; public and private social inclusion organizations other NGOs. It focuses on social integration and working with young people with fewer opportunities and minorities in risk situations;

The staff consists of psychologists, lawyers, trainers, economists who have developed their skills in project management, monitoring and evaluation.

Associação Juvenil da Ilha Terceira (AJITER), Portugal – Azores, is a nonprofit organization created in April 2003. Its primary objective is to promote the integration of young people and active participation in their own communities. The goal is to fight with generalized indifference among young people. In 2009, it launched the AJITER CARD, inspired by the European Youth Card, but at a local level. This project has a social and entrepreneurial dimension also to solidarity objectives. Among them, in 2010, the organization was declared as an institution of public interest by the Portuguese authorities.
